Attorney J. C. Fleming, who has been ill with influenza, has sufficiently recovered to again be at his office.

The friends of Miss Anna Della Estelle and Laura Bryant will be pleased to learn that they have recovered from the "flu."

Mrs. Ada Shealy, her daughters, Johnnie and Sara, Mr. Henry D. Jones and Miss Annie Lou Ellenberg visited last week with Mrs. Smart in Brundidge, S. D.

Mr. J. H. Galtin, formerly of Elba, Route 6, but now of Kinston Route 1, was a visitor in Elba last Thursday and dropped by the Clipper office for a few minutes. Mr. Galtin is one farmer who is thoroughly sold on the diversification plan and is of the opinion that after all it does not depend on one "money crop" each year, as so many do.

Rev. M. T. Moore was a caller at The Clipper office last Thursday, on his way from Montgomery to New Brockton, Rev. Moore is on his way from Butler down to Montgomery to bring his daughter to Woman's College, and took advantage of the opportunity to visit his old friends in this section. He was pastor of the Methodist church at New Brockton for six years, but at the last conference was transferred to Butler. He states that he likes his new charge very much, but that this section still seems like home to him.

MASSONS PRESENT RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORY OF J. W. LEWIS
As it has pleased the Grand Architect of the universe to call from our beloved brother, Joseph W. Lewis, to a life eternal, why should we not now in humble submission to the will of our Saviour who knoweth best.

Bro. J. W. Lewis was initiated and entered as an apprentice by the Elba Lodge, at Henderson, D. C. county, on May 27, 1905. Passed to the degree of Fellowcraft June 24, 1906, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason July 22, 1906. He was a faithful member of that lodge for 5 years, until his death. He was a member of Lewis Mill Lodge No. 730, F. & A. M. He had served as treasurer and had held other offices in that lodge until his death, at which time he was marshal.

Of his life within the lodge we cannot say too much. He was always ready to serve the craft. He received his education at Troy Normal and Newton College, where he took a course in law.

His death came November 23, 1928, and he was buried with Masonic honors at Bluff Springs. And now he is at rest.

That we have suffered a loss from our craft by his passing, and it is hereby moved that this lodge tender its sincere and all sorrowing relatives our sincere and heart-felt sympathy.

The common loss of all, except that there is an immediate loss which cannot be filled.

It is further moved that a copy of this last respect be spread upon the minutes of Lewis Mill Lodge No. 730, F. & A. M., and a copy be placed in the Elba Clipper, to be published.

Respectfully submitted,
J. B. Brantley, J. B. Brantley, G. W. Ammons, C. E. Hudson, Committee.

VOLUME XXXII.
EIGHT BILLION DOLLARS OF CONSTRUCTION
The greatest volume of construction work ever witnessed in the United States during a single year has been accomplished in the past twelve months, according to statistics just compiled by the Associated General Contractors of America. The figures, representing construction operations of all types, show an increase of almost five per cent above the mark set in 1927.

An estimated value of more than eight billion dollars is placed upon the 1928 construction.

The year just closed was the seventh in succession to witness a rise in the volume of construction activities. Not since 1920 has there been an annual increase in the figures set during the preceding year. The 1928 total virtually is double the 1914 figure.

In addition to setting a new annual record, 1928 holds the distinction of having seen a new and unique high mark in the volume of construction work. The new construction from the figures set during the preceding year. The 1928 total virtually is double the 1914 figure.

Records for individual months were broken eight times during 1928, new marks being set in all months except January, February, April and May. The month-to-month trend last year showed a marked departure from the accustomed laws. Until May, operations lagged behind activities recorded during the preceding year. A start was shown during June; but July and August—months which usually produce high activity—showed a declining tendency. A phenomenal rise in September, inspired by large volumes of contracts previously awarded, served to bring the total for the elapsed portion of the year well above normal. Unusual activity marked the concluding months of the year, with operations defying cold weather with more zest than ever before—Industrial Index.

Work On Roads In 14 Counties Will Commence Soon
Work on highway projects in 14 counties will begin in the near future. While there is no primary or general election this year, special elections may be held, which may be important to all taxpayers. It will be two to three months before the work will be under way. Let us urge all to pay at once.

ANOTHER BIG TURNIP
"Parson" Daniels, one of the colored subscribers of The Clipper, who lives on route 3, died last week that the story of the big turnip that was printed in a recent issue of The Clipper wasn't quite his own. He was Miss Helen Kennedy, state nutrition specialist, on that date. Let's have every club represented.

LEADERSHIP SCHOOL FOR 4-H HOME DEM. C. LEADERS
There will be a leadership school Saturday morning, January 30, at Elba in the court house. Club members are asked to be with Miss Helen Kennedy, state nutrition specialist, on that date. Let's have every club represented.

HOME WORKERS DID BIG WORK IN 1928
AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 21.—A total of 18,326 farm women and girls in 41 counties in Alabama were engaged in 4-H club work under the direction of county home demonstration agents in 1928, according to the annual report prepared by Miss Helen Johnston, Auburn, state leader of home demonstration extension work. Of this number, 8,111 were women and 10,215 were girls. Miss Johnston said that thousands of others not enrolled in organized clubs benefited by the work.

Miss Johnston's report contains a summary of the work for each of the major projects and also general statistics. It reveals that during the year the 41 county home demonstration agents held 11,352 meetings with an attendance of 257,229. They visited 7,281 different homes, 12,362 times.

These figures indicate general activities of the county home agents who spent two-thirds of their time out in the counties and one-third in their offices.

NEW DENTIST HAS OFFICE HERE
Dr. W. M. Ringdorf, dentist, now has offices in Elba, located over Elba Drug Co., as will be noticed by readers of The Clipper in his professional card, which appears in this issue.

Dr. Ringdorf has an excellent location, and his office is equipped with all modern appliances. He was formerly located in Montgomery and Haynesville.

AUSTRALIAN BOYS VISIT
Traveling under auspices of the Young Australia league, a party of 100 boys will visit Mobile on February 23, according to information received at the office of the Chamber of Commerce. The boys will be on a tour of the United States. Plans will be made to meet them at the Mobile about the city. They will be here about an hour—Mobile Register.

There will be a leadership school Saturday morning, January 30, at Elba in the court house. Club members are asked to be with Miss Helen Kennedy, state nutrition specialist, on that date. Let's have every club represented.

HOME WORKERS DID BIG WORK IN 1928
AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 21.—A total of 18,326 farm women and girls in 41 counties in Alabama were engaged in 4-H club work under the direction of county home demonstration agents in 1928, according to the annual report prepared by Miss Helen Johnston, Auburn, state leader of home demonstration extension work. Of this number, 8,111 were women and 10,215 were girls. Miss Johnston said that thousands of others not enrolled in organized clubs benefited by the work.

Miss Johnston's report contains a summary of the work for each of the major projects and also general statistics. It reveals that during the year the 41 county home demonstration agents held 11,352 meetings with an attendance of 257,229. They visited 7,281 different homes, 12,362 times.

These figures indicate general activities of the county home agents who spent two-thirds of their time out in the counties and one-third in their offices.

NEW DENTIST HAS OFFICE HERE
Dr. W. M. Ringdorf, dentist, now has offices in Elba, located over Elba Drug Co., as will be noticed by readers of The Clipper in his professional card, which appears in this issue.

Dr. Ringdorf has an excellent location, and his office is equipped with all modern appliances. He was formerly located in Montgomery and Haynesville.

AUSTRALIAN BOYS VISIT
Traveling under auspices of the Young Australia league, a party of 100 boys will visit Mobile on February 23, according to information received at the office of the Chamber of Commerce. The boys will be on a tour of the United States. Plans will be made to meet them at the Mobile about the city. They will be here about an hour—Mobile Register.

VOLUME XXXII.
EIGHT BILLION DOLLARS OF CONSTRUCTION
The greatest volume of construction work ever witnessed in the United States during a single year has been accomplished in the past twelve months, according to statistics just compiled by the Associated General Contractors of America. The figures, representing construction operations of all types, show an increase of almost five per cent above the mark set in 1927.

An estimated value of more than eight billion dollars is placed upon the 1928 construction.

The year just closed was the seventh in succession to witness a rise in the volume of construction activities. Not since 1920 has there been an annual increase

One man who owns a number of farms in this territory decided upon a novel way of enforcing his desire to have his lands tilled by his tenants. He informed them that before a plow turned one lump of dirt this spring that each one would receive an allotment to him. They were all very anxious to know what he meant. That sounds rather hard and drastic, but it will prevent a good deal of misery and was should the coming spring be as afflicted with such torments as was the one just past.

A terrace in time, etc.

In studying the weather map one day last week we noticed the almost unbroken line of low pressure extending from the Gulf of Mexico to the North Atlantic, with a high of 30.00 over the Gulf of Mexico, and a low of 29.50 over the North Atlantic.

Let's trade in Elba, how about it?

A thorough study of advertising will help merchants. There are many ways of conducting a more or less comprehensive research into the habits and needs of the community. Many men have made a life-time of advertising, and have written books that every business man should read. Incidentally, the majority of them concur that a newspaper with a representative coverage or circulation is the best medium.

A news item that should prove of general interest to farmers in the South was printed in the daily papers last Sunday. The import duty on peanuts was raised 1 1/2 cents per pound, to take effect February 18. This should be an effective barrier to the vast quantities of coal-oil-seed peanuts from China that have been demoralizing the market in this country. Any step taken to protect farmers is a step forward for the nation.

SIT UP AND BEG—MAYBE WE'LL GIVE YOU AN AD

Some advertising agencies seem to think that weekly newspapers are a whole lot more than just a general news sheet as they were twenty-five years ago. Recently we received a contract from an agency with an insertion order for a double-column advertisement, and the agency suggested that should we have space to spare they would appreciate a complimentary insertion. Furthermore, they hinted that possibly (hear in mind that "possibly" their client would favor us with another advertisement some day if we honored the request.

Far be it from us to question the motives of the aforementioned agency. Like Caesar, it may be honorable. But we would be willing to wager at least the price of a "dope" that in the event some newspaper is foolish enough to make a gratis insertion of the advertisement in question, clients of the agency would be billed for it. Now, isn't that a nice game?

Go to your grocer and tell him you are going to buy a loaf of bread, and suggest to him that you "might" buy another loaf sometime if he could give you two for the price of one this time. See what he says about it?

AND MAY HIS TRIBE INCREASE

Henry B. Crawford, city manager at Columbus, Ga., recently made quite an argument with the city commissioners of Columbus, although in an entirely friendly vein. Mr. Crawford decided to attend the Rural Show at Cleveland. He is interested in the exhibition as a whole, and especially wishes to see the demonstration of a certain new machine concerning which he is securing data. The city commission, naturally, offered to pay for the trip. Mr. Crawford flatly declined. He takes the position that when a city official takes a trip he should pay for it out of his own pocket. The city commissioners insisted some more. Then Mr. Crawford took the additional point that if the city gave an official time off for a trip, which would be in the nature of a vacation, the official certainly should bear the expense of his travels. And

A SAD DEATH
On Thursday night, Jan. 17th at 11:15 o'clock, the Grim Reaper claimed for his own the noble life of James Clarence Willis.

He was only a few days of illness and pneumonia. His suffering was almost unbearable, but he bore it patiently and was always ready to thank every one who ministered into his needs.

He was born at Tucker, Ala., on June 23, 1885, being almost 74 years of age at his death. He was the son of J. W. and Elizabeth Jackson Willis who were residents of Tucker and Auburn before the death of the Civil war.

Mr. Willis was a student of Auburn College during its early history, having made his education very thorough on his graduation complete.

He was married to Mary Lela Downing of Bullock county, May 23, 1876. To this union was born one son, James Downing Willis, July 28, 1879, who by God's goodness and mercy has never been separated from his father during his life until this sad hour.

Mr. Willis was only permitted to live with this grief for a short time, his death occurring at Leach, Ala., Oct. 4, 1880. He reared his little son to the age of 11 years before selecting another life mate.

Power Development and the Farmer

THE ALABAMA FARMER is directly interested in the development and utilization of power, for power is the key to industrial development, and industrial development is of vital importance to agricultural prosperity.

An average of 3.41 horsepower of electricity is employed by each worker in America, according to the U. S. Census of Manufactures, 1925.

An industry in Alabama with 100 workers must have approximately 325 horsepower of electricity to turn its wheels.

Every time 3/4 horsepower of additional electric power is utilized by a new existing enterprise in Alabama, a new job is created, paying wages with which to buy products from the farmer, and others.

An average of 40c out of every $1 of family income in Alabama, Ala., is expended for food products, according to statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor. Thirty cents out of every dollar goes for foods that are or could be grown in Alabama.

Thus power development means new payrolls, and new payrolls mean new markets for farm products.

It is therefore in the direct interest of the Alabama farmer that such power be made available as Alabama may need for its continued industrialization.

ESTATE OF E. L. FOLEY, DECEASED.
Probate Court, Elba, Alabama, January 21st, 1929.

To Elijah Foley, Century Florida, Howard Foley, Wink, Texas, Carl Foley, Wink, Texas, Mrs. Marissa Pierce and husband, Evelyn Pierce, Akron, Ohio, Clifford Foley, Akron, Ohio, and all others interested in said estate.

You are notified that on the 19th day of December, 1928, Mrs. Amanda Foley, an administratrix of the estate of E. L. Foley, deceased, filed in this Court her application in writing, duly verified by affidavit, praying this Court to order a sale of certain lands, belonging to said estate, for the purpose of paying the debts of the estate, and for a division amongst the joint owners of said lands, and that the Court has appointed the 20th day of February, 1929, for the hearing of said application, at which time you may appear and contest said application, if you think proper to do so.

J. A. Canale, Judge of Probate.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

The School of Missions for the Elba charge will begin Monday evening, Feb. 4th, at 7 o'clock, and will continue each evening through Friday.

The meeting places and days are as follows:

Monday with Mrs. J. M. Garrett, Tuesday with Mrs. J. L. Mison, Wednesday with Mrs. H. C. Johnson, Thursday with Mrs. T. H. Deal, Friday with Mrs. E. B. Paul.

These ladies have not only graciously opened their homes, but have instructed the pastor and committee to insist on both men and women joining the class. They want us to furnish a "full house" each evening.

"The Methodist Evangelist" the book that will be used for discussion, can be secured from Mrs. H. C. Johnson or from the pastor. It is one of the most interesting books we have had and deals with a most important subject.

The pastor wants every member of his church who possibly can, to enroll with us in this school.

E. B. Paul, Pastor.

MORRIS CHILD DIES
The three-year-old child of General Morris, of near Curtis, died Monday morning of pneumonia, and funeral services were held Tuesday at Curtis. The Elba Hardware and Furniture company had charge of the arrangements.

MRS. HUTCHISON GIVES LUNCHEON
Mrs. Ralph Jordan was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. G. Hutchison on Monday last week. Guests on this delightful occasion were members of the Elba S. S. class, of which Mrs. Hutchison has been a loyal member since she has resided in Elba, and of which class Mrs. Hutchison is teacher. Members of this class and Mrs. Jordan's many other friends regret that she has gone to Enterprise to make her home.

Mrs. Hutchison served an elaborate menu to the following guests: Mesdames Ralph Jordan, John Wilkerson, Otis Brooks, J. C. Mesick, Forrest Talbot, and Bruce Madfox.

METHODIST W. M. S. MEETS
Mrs. H. C. Johnson and Mrs. Leslie Mison jointly entertained the W. M. S. at its regular monthly program meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of the former.

Mrs. Mison, vice president, presided.

Mrs. Bancroft led a devotional on "Giving" and directed the program.

Mrs. J. M. Garrett contributed to the interesting program having for her subject, "After the Jubilee, Then What?" Mrs. Bancroft gave a "Presentation of the Voice."

The mission study class will begin a new book, "The Evangelist," Monday evening, Feb. 4th, at the home of Mrs. Garrett, with Rev. E. B. Paul as director.

The study will continue throughout the week and will meet with Mrs. Mison Tuesday evening, Wednesday evening with Mrs. Johnson, Thursday evening with Mrs. Deal and Friday evening with Mrs. Paul.

The hostesses tested our knowledge of the Bible by having a Bible contest. Mrs. Bancroft, being a minister's wife) proved her knowledge was superior by winning the prize, a large bouquet of violets.

During the pleasant social hour the hostess served a dainty salad, assisted by Miss Louise and Christine Johnson. Next Monday afternoon, Feb. 4th, the meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Garrett, with Mrs. Corie Bryant as leader of the Bible study.

The lesson begins with 1029 and ends with 1053. All members are urged to be present with a good son. The society was dismissed with the watchword.

Mrs. W. W. M. Met
Mrs. John Moseley was hostess to the Methodist Missionary Society at her home on Monday afternoon, January 28th.

Mrs. J. A. Sawyer was leader. After a short business meeting the following program was rendered:

Song No. 232, Scripture reading, John 9:1-38, Mrs. W. H. Ward.

Prayer—Mrs. A. A. Owen. Reading, "Handicapped"—Mrs. Arch McKinnon.

"After the Jubilee, What Next?"—Mrs. D. L. Polson.

"Diary of a Missionary Voice"—Mrs. J. E. Engman.

Prayer—Mrs. Alto Pascoe.

COFFEE COUNTY RANKS HIGH IN POULTRY SALES

ONLY ONE DISTRICT TOPS THIS COUNTY IN POULTRY SALES IN INAUGURAL CO-OP. PLAN LAST WEEK

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 26.—The first week of co-operative poultry marketing in the 1929 season was a great success. Statistics compiled in the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation office show that the county ranked first in the state in poultry sales.

D. Moore, marketing specialist of the Extension Service, Auburn, said that the week ending January 25th that farmers and growers sold approximately 122,431 pounds of birds and received about $24,400 for them.

Throughout the next 4 months, every section of the state will be reached by the co-operative sales, according to the marketing specialists. Two or more cars will be loaded each week. County agents, district agents, marketing specialists, county and state farm bureau officials, and other agricultural workers interested in poultry will co-operate in advertising the sale.

Good prices are being paid the growers at the car door. The birds loaded during the first week of the co-operative sales came from Conecuh, Butler, Geneva, Covington, Henry, Coffee, Dale, Chambers, Randolph and Clay counties.

The cars loaded as follows: Conecuh, 18,342 lbs.; Butler, 18,342 lbs.; Geneva, 18,342 lbs.; Covington, 18,342 lbs.; Henry, 18,342 lbs.; Coffee, 18,342 lbs.; Dale, 18,342 lbs.; Chambers, 18,342 lbs.; Randolph, 18,342 lbs.; Clay, 18,342 lbs.
